

Dates: Friday 1st - Monday 4th September 2023

Location: Electric Picnic, Stradbally Hall, Stradbally, Co Laois, Ireland

Job Description

You will be required to work as part of a team of lifeguards to ensure the safety and wellbeing of bathers in the dedicated swimming area of the open water lake at Electric Picnic Festival during bathing hours as well as overnight when festival goers will access to the area around the lake.

Your responsibilities will include:

- Supervision of bathers
- Accident prevention through educating bathers on safe practises
- Providing effective rescue for those in difficulty
- Providing emergency first aid
- Communicating with water safety team
- Attending training sessions

You will be under direct supervision of a team supervisor

Qualifications and experience

Successful applicants will hold a current RLSS/IWS beach lifeguard award or SLISGB Inland Waters Lifeguard/RLSS Open Water Lifeguard or equivalent. Those that hold a RLSS/IWS Pool Lifeguard qualification may be considered, however they must be willing to undergo further training.

Further to this, applicants MUST be able to show evidence of:

- 20 hours of active lifeguarding/training within the past 12 months.

Whilst it is not essential it is desirable for applicants to have an RYA Powerboat Level 2 or equivalent.

Hours of work

Induction training will be held on Friday 1st September at 11:00 which you will be required to attend.

You will then be asked to work up to 18 hours over the Friday, Saturday, Sunday and Monday morning.

The bathing area is open for use between the hours of 09:00 - 19:00 however as we provide 24 hour cover of the lake not all of your allocated shifts will fall between these hours and all successful applicants should be prepared to work 1 night shift.

Payment and expenses

This is a voluntary role in exchange for entry into the festival. Whilst you will be responsible for your own travel and food costs Blue Response will provide refreshments whilst on shift.

Accommodation

On site camping in the staff area will be available for you however you will be required to bring your own tent, sleeping bags etc...
